

Glam Slam Productions Announces Benefit for Camp Loyaltown

Glam Slam Productions will host a benefit to raise funds for a new pool for the campers with developmental disabilities at Camp Loyaltown.

Franklin Square, NY, November 12, 2017: On November 12, 2017 Glam Slam Productions will host an event at The Plattdeutch Restaurant located at 1132 Hempstead Tpke. In Franklin Square, NY to raise funds for the construction of a new pool at Camp Loyaltown located in Hunter, NY. Camp Loyaltown in partnership with Citizens Options Unlimited provides a place for individuals with developmental disabilities to discover independence while experiencing the joys of friendship, fun and personal achievement free from challenges they face daily. Glam Slam Productions has partnered with some of Long Island's finest salons and distributors to provide hands on demonstrations of products and discounts of up to 50%. All guests will receive a gift bag filled with products valued at over $50. The evening will start with a Makeover Show featuring "Celebrities" from the programs at Citizens Options Unlimited. After the show guests will be able to learn about products and techniques from salon professionals and purchase goods at discounted prices. All monies raised at the event will be donated to Camp Loyaltown to help cover the cost of the new pool.

Partners Include: Colori Bella from Oceanside representing Goldwell products, Bella Luna Salon from Roslyn Heights representing Milkshake and Ryan Scott New York, Hollywood Salon from Miller Place representing Farouk Systems and Salon Zeba in Huntington representing MUK. In addition we also have the honor of teaming up with Creative Brushes, Bodyography and Zhoe accessories. The event is supported by Symbiotic and Merit Beauty Supply.

About Camp Loyaltown: Camp Loyaltown is located in the Catskill Mountains, 2 and 1/2 hours north of New York City and 3 hours north of Nassau County's western border. Each year, more than 650 campers enjoy the wonders of the outdoors in a safe and fun environment. We are accredited by the American Campers Association (ACA). Campers and staff live in modernized, rustic-style cabins which house anywhere from 4 to 12 campers and staff members. Each cabin has its own showers and restroom facilities.

The Camp provides a 4:1 camper to counselor ratio and provides 1:1 care when needed. Counselors are energetic, enthusiastic, patient and loving and are thoroughly trained at Camp Loyaltown before the first campers arrive.

About Citizens Options Unlimited: Citizens Options Unlimited (Citizens), an affiliate agency of AHRC Nassau, empowers people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) to achieve their goals through self-directed services. Recognized as a leading agency in the field, our programs, include; Self-Direction, Medicaid Service Coordination, Residential Support Services, Family Support Services and Respite Services. Citizens also works hand in hand with Advantage Care Health Centers to provide coordinated medical, psychiatric and dental care. Citizens' dedication to excellence has been recognized by the Office for People with Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) through its awarding of the Compass agency status; one of only four agencies in New York State with this designation. As a Compass agency, Citizens ensures that all services are person directed, meaning the person receiving Citizens' services has a voice in decisions, policies and procedures, as well as overall quality management and improvement initiatives.

About Glam Slam Productions: Laura Conroy is a seasoned hairdresser, educator and Platform Artist for Farouk Systems. Her dream was to create events where stylists could celebrate one another and be recognized for their outstanding work. The Main Focus of these events is to uplift each other rather than compete. Glam Slam Productions works as a third-party event company that benefits non-for-profit organizations. We do this by celebrating the organization, staff and volunteers. With a focus on 3 very important factors; raising money for selected organizations, making everyone look and feel beautiful, uniting the professional beauty industry to educate and entertain the audience while having fun! These shows are a cost-effective way to utilize our resources, promote each other and educate the consumer about the proper use of professional tools and products. Educating the consumer about diversion and giving them an opportunity to purchase and sample products allows them to experience the luxury while protecting our industry.
